

Evol by Future and Legacy Cannabis Enter Illinois Market

Future's Cannabis Brand Evol Debuts in Illinois with Over 35 Retail Locations

Evol by Future, the multi-platinum superstar Future's line of ultra-premium cannabis, has announced its debut in Illinois, marking a significant milestone in the brand's growth. This launch is in collaboration with Legacy, a company renowned for their commitment to quality and operational excellence.

Availability Across the State

Starting today, Illinois adult consumers can purchase Evol's premium cannabis products, which include flower, pre-rolls, and infused pre-rolls. These products are now available at more than 35 retail locations throughout Illinois, including Windy City, Stash, Sunnyside, High Haven, EarthMed, and Enlightened dispensaries.

Future's Vision for Evol in Illinois

"From the energy of Chicago and through the whole state, Illinois has a unique vibe that's all about hustle and creativity, and I'm ready to bring something special to the scene here," said Future, the founder of Evol by Future. "This isn't just about premium cannabis—it's about raising the bar and giving the people something next-level. Being tied to this community is special because Chicago is like a second home for me and the people have always embraced me as one of their own. I can't wait for Illinois to experience the quality and originality of Evol and finally see what we've been working on."

Rapid Growth and Popularity

Since its debut in May 2023, the Evol by Future brand has quickly gained popularity among cannabis connoisseurs. It is now available in five markets and more than 250 retailers across the country. The brand is expected to reach even more retail locations by the end of the year.

Statements from Carma HoldCo and Legacy

"Future's vision and relentless drive are what make Evol stand out," said Adam Wilks, CEO of Carma HoldCo, the parent company of Evol by Future. "Evol is more than just a brand—it's a movement. We're confident that just like his music, Evol will resonate deeply with cannabis enthusiasts in Illinois. At Carma HoldCo, we're all about bringing top-tier products to new markets, and launching Evol in Illinois is a testament to that mission."

"This partnership with Future to bring his Evol brand to the Illinois market is our most exciting partnership to date," said Ryan Hedrick, Chief Cannabis Officer at Legacy. "Having been fans of his music for years, we are honored to be the ones to introduce Illinois to Evol. As a culturally driven brand, we only want to work with individuals who truly embody our values. So, partnering with Future was a no-brainer and we are excited to watch Illinois fall in love with Evol.”

Evol by Future’s entry into the Illinois market represents a significant step for the brand, offering premium cannabis products to a new and vibrant market. With the support of Legacy and the enthusiasm of Future, Evol is set to make a strong impact on Illinois’ cannabis scene.
